 Message: Good Day Ed:

I apologize for taking nearly a week to respond to your request. The new chemo and meds really knocked me for a loop. I am just now able to sit up at this keyboard long enough to finally answer your e-mail. I've got an awful cold. Mentally, I'm just not able to put into writing just how grateful and blessed I am to have come under your kind care--please express for me what I feel and when you're all back to work. Thank you so much Ed, and I certainly hope I'm not too late to get onto your web page. I'm from Houston, Texas.
 Sincerely, Maurice
